

I'd return for the carrot cake tomorrow; for a meal, I'm not rushing.

MAGIC OVEN
 788 Broadview, 416-466-0111;
 127 Jefferson Ave., 416-539-0555

What's the occasion: "It's hockey night and everyone wants pizza."
Ambience: With five Formica tables and a counter, it's like any pizza joint. Have it delivered.
Food philosophy: Where does virtue end and vice begin? Chicken wings are free range, pizzas have whole-grain crusts, alternative flour pastas are available, plus ethnic options from Tandoori to Thai.
Optimal offerings: The medium Euphoria Magic pizza ($27.13): herbed tomato sauce, preservative-free grilled chicken, spinach, portobellos, red peppers, caramelized onions and light organic mozzarella on a cracker-thin gluten-free crust. All four food groups, all healthy toppings.
Guilty pleasure: The small Tropical Magic ($12): fresh pineapple, roasted coconut, prosciutto, olive oil and garlic, fresh mango and Asiago cheese. All four food groups, all indulgent toppings.
Frequency factor: Whenever you crave pizza.
 National Post

Café Next Door
 feel-good food

magical
 catering.com