

SEARCH

or use our restaurant search >

Magazine

- Editor's Pick
- Current Issue
- Past Issues
- Archives
- This City
- Super Shopper
- Urban Decoder
- Marketplace
- Masthead
- Advertising
- Contact Us
- Subscribe

Eat Cheap 2005: The City's Best Pizza Pizzas for every palate, from vegan to deluxe...

GUILT-FREE From a menu that caters to all diets, the Vegan slice ($4.25) is a thick, crisp, organic spelt crust covered with succulent grilled and roasted veggies. Magic Oven, 788 Broadview Ave., 416 466-0111.

RICH AND THIN The wafer crust just barely supports the Affetisciuta's sweet Italian sausage, smoked scamorza and fresh tomato sauce ($12.50). Terroni, 720 Queen St. W., 416-504-0320, plus two other locations.

HANGOVER HELPER After a night of bar hopping, the pesto slice is as good as ever - hot, crisp and garlicky, with creamy goat cheese and sweet red peppers ($4). John's Classic Pizza, 591 College St., 416-537-0078.

UPPER CRUST Yet another reason to envy Forest Hill. The Nana is artfully decorated with juicy chunks of chicken, freshly roasted red peppers and a vibrant swirl of sweet basil pesto ($11). Banfi, 333B Lonsdale Rd., 416-322-5231.

ROMAN HOLIDAY Pizza di Parma comes piping hot from the wood-fired oven, covered in a sublime combination of tangy asiago, parsley, sweet roasted garlic and buttery soft slices of prosciutto ($9.95). Marcello's, 1163 St. Clair Ave. W., 416-656-6159.

 EMAIL TO FRIEND

FEEDBACK

 PRINT VERSION